are also employed.
The first of these states that the brothers of the deceased is studying the religious principles
and till he is trained
the Patil may be appointed as Gumasta.
The rest agree to
this arrangement.
The Patil concurs
with this statement.
There appears no
objection to the brother being registered as Khoji. Requests
therefore that the
stipend order may be issued in his name.
Each of his personal
marks the stipend
